

“SEPTEMBERFEST” BRINGS FUN AND PRIZES TO WILKINSBURG

This special edition of “The Well” comes to you with exciting news about two special fund-raising events to be held in Wilkinsburg in September and October. You’ve already read about the 2009 Pittsburgh East CROP Hunger Walk that will be held on Sunday October 11. Last year 115 walkers from 17 groups and congregations raised a total of $12,000 to fight hunger locally and around the world. We hope you’ll consider being a walker or sponsor.

The WCM “Septemberfest” will be held on the afternoon of Saturday, September 19, 2009 in the parking lot near South Avenue United Methodist Church. As the flier says, there will be food, entertainment and fabulous prizes. Included on the prize list are the following: A-B Lounge Sport Exercise Machine, Carnegie Natural History Museum Tickets, Pittsburgh Public Theater Tickets, Pittsburgh Zoo & Aquarium Tickets, Pittsburgh Irish and Classical Theater Tickets, Children’s Museum Family Pass, Civic Light Opera Tickets, Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra Tickets, LeMont Restaurant Dinner for 2, Family Portrait Package from Wonday Film, Food Boxes from Angel Food Ministries, Gift Certificate from Bill Bellisito Hair Stylist and many, many more. Please bring your friends for a grand afternoon that will benefit the many programs of WCM. See you there!!

PITTSBURGH EAST CROP HUNGER WALK TO RAISE FUNDS FOR WCM

On Sunday afternoon October 11, 2009, walkers from many different churches and organizations will follow a 10K course through the East End of Pittsburgh to raise funds for Church World Service to fight hunger in our community and around the world. Of the total money raised 15% will go to WCM’s hunger programs and 10% will go to those of the East End Cooperative Ministry.

If you are interested in supporting CROP and WCM in this way, please sign in to www.cropwalk.org and specify the Pittsburgh East Hunger Walk as the destination of your donation. You may also contact walk coordinator Sue Koehler at 412-441-7997 or 412-747-7920 or call the WCM office at 412-241-8072 and ask for information about how you can participate in this year’s Walk.
